4th ANNUAL EARLY CHILDHOOD COLLABORATION EVENT

April 18, 2015
8:00am—4:00 pm

Telling Future Stories:
Building Self Esteem in Children

Where the story begins: How our own culture shapes our perception of the world
Living the story: Get into some hands-on art! Feel the connection between art and emotions
Where the story takes us: How to engage children in creating and expanding their “Future stories” to be anything they want to be

Attend this amazing day-long training and learn all about how you can impact the self-esteem of children in your care through self-reflection, art, and purposeful interaction with children and their families. Take home concrete curriculum strategies that will change lives!

We welcome master consultant and coach Lisa Culp to the Billings area! Lisa has been involved in implementing successful programs that meet the needs of families and children for the past 25 years.

One of Lisa’s passions is her involvement with many anti-poverty efforts, including a three year opportunity working as the Director for the Bridge the Gap Project through the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

Lisa believes that her life’s purpose is to encourage others to use their gifts and abilities meaningfully and authentically and she seeks to embolden her participants to discover and use those gifts daily.

Participants are asked to please bring a favorite children’s book to this class, to use as inspiration for the art portion of the day.

COST: $45 for the whole day, lunch & snacks included

Lunch menu: Taco bar, water
Snacks: muffins, fruit, coffee, cookies

What others have to say about Lisa:

- “Lisa is a dynamic presenter and is passionate about her work!”
- “...her enthusiasm, energy, humor, and positive attitude caused her trainings to be among the most anticipated and appreciated by our staff.”
- “Lisa brings sensitivity, compassion, and thoughtful guidance to her presentations.”
- “The energy she brings is infectious!”
